

1996

Justine Petersen (posthumous), for a life committed to the interests of low income people and especially her founding of the St. Louis Reinvestment Corporation which helps low income people own their own homes.

Penny & Reverend Larry Rice, for commitment and assistance to forgotten and despised people on Missouri's death row and in prison and especially to the families of prisoners and for their acts of personal witness such as the hunger strike for falsely imprisoned Johnnie Lee Wilson.

Elizabeth Ossorio, for a lifetime of professional and personal commitment to a decent and just community and especially for her founding of EVE, Elders Volunteer for Elders, a program that provides volunteer help for frail seniors that allows them to continue to live in their homes and communities.