

DEAR MASW CENTRAL CHAPTER MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF MASW:

The date for the Central Chapter annual dinner and meeting is drawing near – Thursday, August 25. Now is the time to let us know you are planning to be with us. Please send in your registration! We have an excellent speaker this year who will speak clearly to the budget and revenue problems that are plaguing our state and detail what needs to be done to resolve some of these important concerns.

As a reminder – we need items for the silent auction - more information is posted below. If you have questions contact Barbara Ross bross@cccnmo.org, Dorothy Werdehausen werdehausen@masw.org, or Stu Murphy roundtableconsulting@embarqmail.com

CENTRAL CHAPTER

ANNUAL MEETING AND DINNER

Thursday, August 25, 2011

Madison's Café, 216 Madison St. Jefferson City, MO

5:30 PM – Wine Bar & Silent Auction – Open

The Silent Auction is the Central Chapter's only fund raiser - please plan to support the Chapter by participating in the auction by bringing new or like new items for bidding and by coming prepared to bid.

6:15 PM – Dinner

7:00 PM – Annual Meeting and Election of Officers

7:20 PM – Guest Speaker – Jim Moody - of James R. Moody and Associates, Governmental Relations Consultants

James R. Moody, principal of the firm, is a former state budget director and director of the office of administration for the state of Missouri. The firm is among the state's most widely recognized governmental consulting firms. In addition, Moody & Associates has produced major research reports analyzing the state's financial conditions and how proposed changes might affect the state's economy and budgets. Most recently, Jim Moody's firm conducted analysis and presented testimony before the state legislature regarding the proposed "Fair Tax." Their analysis demonstrates how damaging such tax policy would be for the state of Missouri.
