

MASW Central Chapter Board Meeting Agenda
3 pm, Monday, April 19, 2010
Center for Social Justice
606 East Capitol, JC

1. Approval of Minutes
2. Financial Report: Current balance $724.85.
3. programs/initiatives in planning stages.
 - a. HRTF Profiling: We expect Harris to be in Missouri the week of June 14, with stops in St Louis, MidMissouri, KC and Springfield Monday through Thursday. Anti-Defamation League, NAACP, Council on American-Islamic Relations, ACLU, MIRA, and other organizations and individuals are involved in planning.
 - b. HRTF is also working on hate crimes, immigration issues, job discrimination, universal design, and legislative issues.
 - d. The Campaign for a Taser-Free Zone has become the main focus of most Columbia activists, with a voter initiative petition. Don will continue to represent control efforts, but CC supports Taser-free Zone.
 - e. Economic Justice TF is interested in a lobby day?
 - f. Foster Care Lobby Day? Foster Care Lobby Day: CC will help present DeAnna Alonso's legislative priorities (aging out of foster care and equal distribution of resources statewide) at the capitol. She also needs help influencing Corrections to keep track of former foster care youths who have ended up in prison, so the problem can be better documented.
4. Screening of The Only Good Indian went well with about 50 in attendance and about a dozen joining Kevin Wilmott for dinner.
5. Fair Housing Symposium: 8:30-noon, Thursday, April 22, 1005 W Worley, Columbia: This annual event will be highlighted with a discussion led by representatives from HUD, Missouri Commission on Human Rights, members of the legal and real estate communities, and local housing representatives. Jeff City Symposium: one week later.
6. Next meeting: 3 pm, Monday, April 19, CSJ.

MASW Central Chapter Board Meeting Report
2 pm, Wednesday, March 17, 2010
606 East Capitol, JC

The meeting was held in conjunction with Economic Justice Task Force with the CC business meeting following the program.

Present: Debi Word, DeAnna Alonso, Stephanie Pate, Sara Ferrill, Eric Krekel, Don Love (reporting)

1. Minutes of the last meeting were approved.
2. Financial Report: Current balance $724.85, after $50 to Promo to sponsor LGBT Equality Day.
3. programs/initiatives in planning stages.
 - a. HRTF Profiling: Columbia police chief Ken Burton is cooperating with this effort to improve law enforcement by reducing unconscious bias and building better links to community groups, especially minorities. We expect to use grant money to bring David Harris (Good Cops: the case for preventive policing) to Missouri. This effort also includes work on cultural competence.
 - b. HRTF: The Only Good Indian: movie presented by director, 4 pm, Thursday, March 25, Langston Hughes Theater, LU, followed by ad hoc dinner.
 - c. HRTF is also working on hate crimes, immigration issues, job discrimination, universal design, and legislative issues.
 - d. The Campaign for a Taser-Free Zone has become the main focus of most Columbia activists, with a voter initiative petition. Don will continue to represent control efforts, but CC supports Taser-free Zone.
 - e. Economic Justice TF is interested in a lobby day?
 - f. Foster Care Lobby Day? Foster Care Lobby Day: CC will help present DeAnna Alonso's legislative priorities (aging out of foster care and equal distribution of resources statewide) at the capitol. She also needs help influencing Corrections to keep track of former foster care youths who have ended up in prison, so the problem can be better documented.
 - g. Fair Housing Symposium: 8:30-noon, Thursday, April 22, 1005 W Worley, Columbia: This annual event will be highlighted with a discussion led by representatives from HUD, Missouri Commission on Human Rights, members of the legal and real estate communities, and local housing representatives. Jeff City Symposium: one week later.
4. Lincoln University MASW Student Chapter:

Debi enlisted Don and Stephanie to participate in a Poverty Simulation held by Central Missouri Community Action.

An organization meeting will be held 5 pm, Wednesday, April 14, LU Bennett Hall (east of Scruggs Student Center). CC board approved $75 to be used as Debi sees fit.
5. Lobby Days:
 - a. PROMO Equality Day, Wednesday, 3/24
6. Next meeting: 3 pm, Monday, April 19, CSJ.